

CONQUER BY SAVING

Overcome the shiftlessness of listlessness and save and have. Gain a name and fame through conquest of yourself. Lay aside a little money and receive the reward that peace of body and mind brings when you are old. Start depositing here today.

THE
First National Bank of Nogales,
NOGALES, ARIZONA

BABY BEDS AND CRIBS—LARGE STOCK
GEO. B. MARSH, INC.

THE NOGALES NATIONAL BANK

A Safe Conservative Banking Institution

CAPITAL.....$ 50,000
DEPOSITS.....$450,000

Collections, Exchange, Escrows, Trusts,
and a GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS

DIRECTORS

A. M. Gillespie, Sam Leeker, James
A. Harrison, J. E. Wise, A. F. Kerr

OFFICERS

A. F. KERR, President. A. M. GILLESPIE, Vice President and Manager. R. E. BUTLER, Cashier.

Fordson

TRACTOR AND TRACTOR IMPLEMENTS
PHILADELPHIA DIAMOND GRID BATTERY

United States Tires.
U. S. Royal Cord Casings.
Expert Ford and General
Overhauling—Machine Work
Genuine Ford Parts
Used Exclusively.
Oxy-Acetylene Welding.

KARNS BROS., INC.

Jobbers and Distributors
Auto Accessories

123 Grand Ave. Phone 99
143 " " 239

Nogales, Arizona

The Border Tidette.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One Year.....$2.00
Six Months.....1.50
Three Months.....1.00

IN ADVANCE

JANUARY 8, 1920.

LOCAL NEWS.

Marcos D. Smith is spending the holidays with his family in Los Angeles.

W. B. Houston, from Phoenix, was a Nogales visitor this week a couple of days.

V. P. Hanson, the Elgin merchant, is a very sick man at St. Joseph's hospital.

Christmas day Mrs. F. F. Huerta presented her husband with a cute baby girl.

Last Wednesday Mr. H. Percy Meaker arrived from Los Mochis, en route to Los Angeles.

Tuesday Attorney S. Fred. Noon returned from Tombstone, where he had been on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Gray are spending the holidays in San Francisco, with relatives and friends.

Mr. J. F. Johnson, automobile dealer, is enjoying the holidays in California. He'll return home next week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Fowler were among the Nogales people who visited Tucson the forepart of the week.

Hunger knows no armistice. The war is over but the effects of the war are today overwhelming the Near East.

Leslie Woodell, Arivaca cattleman, has been a Nogales visitor this week, a guest at the J. E. Wise home on Nob Hill.

Mr. Blas Torres, manager of the Palacio Hotel, at Guaymas, has returned from Los Angeles, where he spent Christmas.

Last Tuesday J. E. Wise, J. A. Harrison and other local stock raisers, shipped from Calabasas, a big trainload of cattle.

Hon. and Mrs. J. S. Gatlin, from their ranch home near Patagonia, spent Wednesday in Nogales, where they have a host of friends.

The New Year's ball at the Santa Cruz Club was a joyous affair, as all functions staged by that popular social organization, always are.

Mr. W. T. Roath, prominent Elgin cattleman, who owns valuable real estate in Nogales, was a business visitor here from his splendid ranch.

W. H. Land, the Tucson banker, motored down to participate in the New Year's festivities, being a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Gillespie.

Marshall McDonald, mounted U. S. customs inspector, in charge out at Sasabe, after several days visit in the city, has returned to his post.

Dillon Moore, the vulcanizer, was here a couple of days this week from Tucson, where he is connected with one of the big automobile garages of that city.

P. T. Coleman, the Holbrook, Arizona cattleman, who has a big stock ranch in Sonora, near Carbo, has been a visitor in the Line City this week a couple of days.

This week the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Hunter, of this city, was made happy by the arrival of a fine baby girl. Mother and little one doing nicely.

Mr. O. McDowell, local manager for the Western Woodware Company, has returned from Clifton, Arizona, where he spent the holidays with his parents.

Hon. E. V. Anaya of Tucson, accompanied by Mrs. Anaya, Master Enrique Anaya and Miss Eva Anaya, spent New Year's Day in Nogales. They registered at Hotel Evans.

Mr. Ripley, the well known Noria, Sonora dry farmer, has returned from Los Angeles, where he had been on business with Mr. A. M. Conard, the land and mine operator.

Mr. Fred. Hilliker, of the Sonora Valley Dand Company, accompanied by his son, Mr. Fred. Hilliker, Jr., was a visitor in the city last Tuesday en route to the Noria, Sonora country, on business connected with farming operations going on there, under his personal management.

What better New Year's resolution than to bring back health and happiness to a starving child? The Arizona headquarters of the Near East Relief, of Phoenix, will tell you how.

Supervisors Asburn and Finley, were county seat visitors this week a couple of days, the former from the Pennsylvania ranch near Patagonia, the latter from his farm near Canille.

Thursday Rev. F. J. Stoetzel and family departed for Phoenix, where they will make their home, the reverend gentleman being in charge of the Neighborhood Congregational church.

"Major" J. W. Griffith, master mechanic for the Southern Pacific of Mexico, with headquarters at Empalme, Sonora, has been a visitor here several days this week on company business.

After enjoying the Xmas holidays in Los Angeles with his family, Mr. J. A. Small, superintendent of the Cananea division of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, returned last Wednesday.

Mr. Francis Wilkie, after enjoying Xmas here with relatives, has returned to his home in San Francisco. Francis is a nephew of the Wilkie boys, and a grand son of Justice of the Peace Wilkie.

C. B. Stambaugh, export manager for the Western Woodware Company, of El Paso, after giving the Nogales branch the "once over," has returned to the Pass City, where he makes his headquarters.

"Resolved—That I will let no child suffer if it is within my power to prevent." Having made resolution, write to the Arizona headquarters of the Near East Relief and learn how you can keep it.

John Glasson, the mine superintendent, has been here several days this week from Bloxtion Station. Mr. Glasson is a great booster for Patagonia and the mining districts near that prosperous little city.

Tomatoes from the West Coast of Mexico, are commencing to arrive at the Port of Nogales, the first carload of the season having been crossed last Tuesday by the Mexico-Arizona Trading Co. of this city.

Mr. Kelly Henry, well known, successful commission man, is recovering from a severe cold, which caused him to remain in doors several days. Tuesday Kelly went to Imuris, Sonora, on private business.

Mr. Guillermo Mascareñas is wearing a broad smile, since receiving the glad news from Los Angeles, that his wife on Xmas Day, presented him with a bouncing boy baby. Mother and little one are doing nicely.

Dr. P. D. Claggett, a brother of Mr. H. M. Claggett, of this city, accompanied by his wife and daughter, has arrived from Waynesville, Ohio, for a visit with the Claggetts at their pleasant home on Crawford street.

Mr. Harry Barnett, the Patagonia mining man, accompanied by his son, Fred, one of Santa Cruz county's best known successful young cattlemen, were Nogales visitors last Wednesday on a shopping expedition.

Mr. Jack O'Keefe has returned to the University of Arizona, after enjoying Xmas holidays at the pleasant home of his mother, Mrs. Con O'Keefe, on Morley avenue. Jack is making a splendid record at the U. of A.

Mr. William Gourdin, formerly a resident of Nogales, now of Sparks, Nevada, where he is engaged in the mercantile business, has arrived with his family, for a short visit here with his mother and other relatives.

Mr. E. M. Dickerman, prominent Tucson Elk, who for many years was connected with the mechanical department of the Southern Pacific Company, was a visitor in Nogales last Monday, being accompanied by his wife.

Mr. George F. Jackson, a gentleman well and favorably known in Nogales and Sonora, who is now fiscal agent in the City of Mexico for the Southern Pacific of Mexico, was visitor in Tucson the forepart of the week, on railway business.

Mr. J. J. Deegan, of the U. S. customs service, who spent Christmas pleasantly in Tucson with his sister, Mrs. George W. Atkinson, is back on the international line giving the boys the "once over" on their visits "abroad." Jack sure loves little old Nogales. Says he's glad to be back on the job.

Yesterday morning Mr. Ignacio Corella, former state treasurer of Sonora, who is again making his home in Douglas, returned to the Smelter City, after transacting business here with Mr. Wirt G. Bowman, well known local capitalist.

Mr. Ben Ashbey, popular passenger conductor on the Southern Pacific of Mexico, accompanied by his wife, a most estimable lady, returned the forepart of the week from an extended pleasure visit with relatives at Murphysboro, Illinois.

Last Tuesday the private car "Sonora," traveling home of Mr. H. J. Temple, general superintendent of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, was sent to Tucson to meet Mr. Temple, who motored to that city to consult President Epes Randolph.

The Republican State Central Committee will meet in Phoenix on January 19th, for the purpose of fixing the time and place for the state convention to select six delegates and six alternates to the Republican National Convention to be held at Chicago, June 8th.

John T. Brickwood who is pushing development work on the Old Soldier properties situated on the west side of the Patagonia mountains, reports the old silver mine showing up fine, with prospects of developing high-grade ore in paying quantities, good.

The New Year's Eve grand ball of the Club Recreative de Nogales, held at the High School auditorium, was the crowning social event of the season. The new club has a large membership and bids fair to become the most popular social organization on the border. The inaugural ball will long be pleasantly remembered by the members and their friends.

Mr. Victor Preciado, of the new commission firm of Presiado Hermanos, is a business visitor in the city from Topolobampo, Sonora. The gentleman has a wide circle of friends in Nogales, where he has been doing business many years. Preciado Hermanos will have branches at Guaymas, Sonora, and at Tamaulapa, Sinaloa. We wish the new firm much success.

Mr. Harry Hannah, the well known immigration officer, who for a long time has been stationed at Tucson, spent Tuesday in Nogales on official business. Harry resided in Nogales many years, and has a wide circle of personal friends in the "Key City," who are always pleased to see him. He is a brother of Mrs. E. K. Cumming, Fred. and Miss Dora Hannah, of this city.

Mr. Andrew O'Connor, of the U. S. customs service, has gone over to Lochiel, where he will inspect customs ore being shipped from the Duquesne district, to Douglas via Zorrilla station, near the international line, in the state of Sonora. At the present time Mr. O'Connor's wife is teaching the school at Lochiel. Andy is one of Collector Hardy's most efficient, popular, inspectors.

Mr. Walker, son-in-law of Mr. J. E. Wise, is here from Texas, where he is making a big fortune out of his oil operations. Mr. Walker has purchased a nice lot in Bella Vista tract and in the near future will erect a handsome residence. The gentleman's friends will be pleased to learn that he and his charming wife will make their home in Nogales, the best town on the border.

At the meeting of the board of directors of the Nogales Chamber of Commerce, held last Monday night, Mr. Bracey Curtis, president of the First National Bank of Nogales, was elected president of the organization. Attorney Frank J. Barry was elected first vice president, J. E. Wise second vice president and J. A. Legarra, treasurer. A committee was appointed to receive applications for secretary of the chamber.

The funeral of the late Edmund Conklin, a member of the Army & Navy Union, was held yesterday afternoon from the Marsh's Undertaking Parlors, under the auspices of the Stephen D. Little Garrison No. 125. Interment was in the Nogales cemetery. The old soldier and Indian fighter passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital in this city, early New Year's Day. Ed. Conklin was one of Arizona's pioneer citizens, having come to this state more than forty years ago. Many old timers will regret to learn that he has passed away.

Mr. J. L. Sheperd, the mining man, arrived from the south country last Wednesday, and New Year's Day continued on to California, for a short visit with his family who reside at Anaheim. The gentleman was very enthusiastic over the old silver properties situated in the Altar district, Sonora, owned by his company, "Ray de Plata Mining Company," in which Mr. C. C. Chapman, well known California capitalist, is interested financially.

This week Mr. John O'Connor, one of the best known trainers of running horses, has been a visitor in Nogales, a guest of his old friend, Mr. Don C. Franklin, the well known capitalist, who is extensively interested in valuable land near Casa Grande. Mr. O'Connor resides on his fine farm near Joliet, Illinois. He may decide to invest in real estate, and make his home in Nogales, which he says is the best town he has seen in all his travels.

A fatal automobile accident occurred last Thursday afternoon, at the 18 mile curve near Tubac, resulting in the death of J. A. Pacaud, and the injuring of Howard S. Russell U. S. Dodson, D. A. Latham, all vocational students at the University of Arizona. B. M. Cruse, also a student, who was a member of the party, escaped injury. The body of the unfortunate young man, who saw service overseas, will be sent to Jackson, Tenn., for burial.

H. T. (Hank) Wilson, owner of the Santa Cruz Patagonian, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Perry J. Wilson, experienced printer and dry farmer from the San Rafael Valley, spent a couple of days at the county seat this week, on business connected with getting out this week's issue of his interesting weekly, which is again being published by "Hank" Wilson, who expects soon to go to California to reside. Mr. Lancaster, who for some months past published the Patagonian, is no longer connected with the paper.

Friends of Mr. P. J. Munch of this city, will be pleased to learn that he has been appointed by Jesse L. Boyce, state auditor and ex-officio bank examiner, to the important post of assistant in the bank examiner's office, at Phoenix. Mr. Munch but recently returned to Arizona from Washington, D. C., where he was field auditor for the War Department. Before entering the service of the government, Mr. Munch was assistant state land commissioner, under Land Commissioner Moeur. As assistant bank examiner, he'll make good.

"THE FAMOUS."

J. A. Legarra, 33 Degree Booster, Going It Alone.

J. A. Legarra resigned today (Jan. 2) as manager of The Modern and will depart within a few days for New York and other eastern buying centers to purchase a stock of boots, shoes, clothing, dry goods and gents' furnishings for "The Famous," a new establishment which will be opened by Mr. Legarra in the building in Morley avenue now occupied by the Royal Pool Hall.

While on his buying trip, Mr. Legarra is planning to purchase a stock of goods that will delight the public in its magnificence. Thousands of dollars will also be spent by Mr. Legarra in fitting up his new place of business and no effort will be spared to make "The Famous," one of the most attractive stores in the city of Nogales.

Nogales needs no introduction to Joaquin A. Legarra. He is one of the pioneer merchants of the southwest and through many years of dealing with the public, by his honesty in business dealings and amiable disposition has made a world of friends. He started his business career in Tucson from where he came to Nogales, being at the helm of the Red House formerly owned by Don Ramon Vasquez, conducting that business successfully for six years and remaining with the house which was purchased by Mr. Joe Berk and is now known as "The Modern."

Mr. Legarra through his knowledge of business conditions on the border and to the south and being aware of the class of merchandise usually purchased by the different classes, should make a success of his new business, from the start. As a token of the esteem in which they hold him, a number of the employees of "The Modern" today presented Mr. Legarra with a handsome desk lamp.—Herald.